GENERAL DISPOSITION

You can give away your assets to your beneficiaries in percentages. This is the preferred mode of giving. Since you do not know when you may pass on, therefore you will not know what you have at the time of your death. Most Wills are drafted with General Disposition as the preferred mode.

ADD BENEFICIARY – Click to select the designated beneficiary. You may select from the list of Beneficiaries that you have populated at DETAILS OF BENEFICIARIES.

Example: - List of beneficiaries populated: -

- (i) William Quek
- (ii) Simon Quek
- (iii) John Wong
- (iv) Mary Wong

Although you have populated 4 beneficiaries at the earlier stage, you have the flexibility to select any number of beneficiaries according to your wish.

1st Beneficiary selected is William Quek – 50%

You will be given an option to select replacement beneficiary for William Quek in the event he passed on before or at the same time with you.

Select Yes if you wish to proceed and you may select the replacement beneficiaries from the dropdown menu. In this case, you selected Simon Quek and John Wong. You need to indicate the percentage (of William Quek's proportion) accordingly. In this case, you selected: -

- (a) Simon Quek – 30% [this means Simon will inherit 30% of William's share]
- (b) John Wong – 70% [this means Simon will inherit 70% of William's share]

Note: (a) + (b) = 100% (else error message will be triggered)

2nd Beneficiary selected is Simon Quek – 50%

The replacement beneficiary is John Wong – 100% [this means John Wong will inherit 100% of Simon's share]

Note 1: at selection of beneficiary stage, if your intended beneficiary is not in your DETAILS OF BENEFICIARIES, click Add Replacement Beneficiary to populate.

Note 2: you need to click Add Beneficiary before you click SUBMIT. Once you are ready, click NEXT.
